We had no CEPI or REMC updates

Minutes of the May meeting were approved by Kevin Galbraith and seconded by Kathy Jones

MACUL Update: Jeff Trudell reported for Ric Wiltse. Ric sent a follow-up email to be included in the minutes.

1. Time is running out to submit your proposal to present at the 2011 MACUL Conference, held in Detroit on March 16-18. September 30 is the deadline to submit proposals at macul.org. Presenters receive complimentary conference registration, a $140 value. And, oh yes. Don't forget to mark your calendars for the 35th Anniversary St. Patrick's Day party at the Roostertail restaurant. Limited availability! This is one party that they will be talking about 35 years from now.

2. Are you in a technology or curriculum leadership position? If you are, then you need to attend the Technology and Curriculum Director meeting presented by MACUL and the Michigan

Department of Education on October 5 at the Downtown Lansing Radisson Hotel. Free registration, valet parking and meals. Register at: https://register.macul.org/default.aspx?conference=technology_curriculum_directors_meeting_2010

3. Know all about cloud computing? Are you making the most of cloud based resources? Would you like to know more about cloud computing? Attend the Teaching and Learning in the Cloud conference, presented by MACUL and Holland Christian Schools on October 21-22. Many outstanding pre-conference workshops will be held on Thursday, October 21 and an outstanding line up of sessions will take place on Friday, October 22. Hear Featured Speakers Rushton Hurley present on Google resources for educators and Wes Fryer present on Digital Storytelling. Register at macul.org.

4. Calling all K-12 students and teachers! Demonstrate the good things happening with technology in your classroom to state legislators at the 10th Annual Student Technology Showcase at the Michigan Capitol Building on November 10. Registration is free. Give your students the opportunity of a lifetime to interact with decision makers. Register at <http://www.classroomhelp.com/att/application.html>

A conversation about possible topics that David will take to the Leadership Conference in November for the planning of the 2011 MSBO Annual Conference. David and Jeff talked about last year's 3 hour MSBO Certification course they presented.

A conversation about future "technology committee" meetings took place. Jeff mentioned a possible speaker from Dell for our November or January meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Jeff Trudell
Technology Director
Wyandotte Public School
Vice-Chair MSBO Technology Committee
