

ORDER VALIDATION

While the Program strives to provide for all bus configurations, no program of this size, scope, and complexity can cover every possible eventuality. Therefore, the program requires you to validate your bus design with your selected dealer(s) BEFORE you go to your Board of Education for purchasing authorization. It is easier to make sure first than to go back to the Board with “adjustments.” We cannot stress this validation step strongly enough!