RE: Consensus Revenue Estimating Conference — May 16, 2018

You are invited to attend the May 2018 Consensus Revenue Estimating Conference, which will convene at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, May 16, 2018, in the House Appropriations Committee Room on the third floor of Michigan's Capitol Building.

Consensus Revenue Estimating Conferences are held pursuant to the Management and Budget Act Sections 367(a) through 367(f) to establish an official economic forecast of major variables of the national and state economies and establish a forecast of anticipated state revenues.

The May 2018 Consensus Revenue Estimating Conference will feature presentations by:

- Gabriel Ehrlich, Director and Daniil Manaenkov, Chief U.S. Economist, Research Seminar in Quantitative Economics (RSQE), University of Michigan
- Kristin Dziczek, Director, Industry, Labor & Economics Group, Center for Automotive Research
- Economists from House Fiscal Agency, Senate Fiscal Agency, and Department of Treasury
- Fiscal Analysts from House Fiscal Agency, Senate Fiscal Agency, and State Budget Office

A complete agenda will be available at a later date.

Please call if you have questions about this conference.
