Media Advisory for Tuesday, May 17, 2016

The Consensus Revenue Estimating Conference will take place on Tuesday, May 17, 2016, in the House Appropriations Committee Room on the third floor of the Capitol. The conference will begin at 9:00 a.m. Presentations at the conference will focus on current economic conditions and the outlook for the U.S. and Michigan economies, and State government revenue.

The conference will review and revise the official forecast for major national and state economic variables for 2016, 2017, and 2018. The conference will also review and revise official revenue estimates for the remainder of FY 2015-16, as well as FY 2016-17, and FY 2017-18.

The official forecasts will be established by a consensus of the conference principals representing the Administration (State Treasurer), Senate (Director of the Senate Fiscal Agency), and House (Director of the House Fiscal Agency).
