POSITION TITLE: Executive Director, Finance

FTE: 1.0

SALARY: $115,000 - $136,462 (based on experience)

REPORTING RELATIONSHIP: Assistant Superintendent for Finance and Operations

This job posting is to fill a position that has previously existed in the district.

The Ann Arbor Public Schools seeks a competent and committed financial leader with a proven record of success who will support the Assistant Superintendent in overseeing the district finances and the finance division. It is an exciting time in the Ann Arbor Public Schools following the passage of a significant Capital Bond in November, 2019 and as the AAPS team continues on a path of growth and development to achieve educational excellence through ensuring equity and opportunity for every child, every day.

The right leader will understand the critical importance of proactive, insightful planning, competent financial oversight and attention to detail, will have the ability to participate on a high-performing team, and be comfortable with the challenge of working across multiple groups of stakeholders to realize a vision of sound, innovative fiscal management. We are currently extending and enhancing our support of staff and development of quality programs to achieve even higher levels of distinction while continuing the quality for which the Ann Arbor Public Schools has long been well known, across Michigan and around the world.
