TODAY'S MODERATOR

CAROLYN THOMAS, MBA, CND, SNS

Child Nutrition Consultant

Macomb ISD

Carl Williams is the executive director for the Detroit Public Schools Community District's (DPSCD) Office of School Nutrition (OSN) and responsible for school-based meal operations in 107 schools for all USDA Child nutrition programs. Mr. Williams holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Hospitality Business from Michigan State University and holds a Master of Business Administration degree from Ashford University specializing in Finance.

His dedication to child nutrition spans over 15 years. A Detroit Public School (DPS) graduate from Western International, he has been an employee of DPS/DPSCD for the past eight years—four years as a program supervisor and four years as executive director. He also spent seven years as the director of dining services at Ypsilanti Community Schools while an employee of Chartwells Food Service.

Mr. Williams is passionate about child nutrition and is on a mission to create an excellent dining experience for all of the District's students.

He and his wife, Jackie, are the proud parents of a daughter, Kayla, a freshmen at their alma mater, Michigan State University, and a son, Kyle, a junior in high school.
